This annual, "The Gorilla Review of 1962," is the story which the staff has to tell. This book is a review of the activities which the classes and organizations of our school either sponsored or in which they participated during the past year.

It is the hope of the staff that in future years these pages may be a pleasant and thorough review of the happy as well as the sad times experienced by the students and teachers of D H S in the school year of '61 and '62.

LOYALTY SONG

We're loyal to you Davenport High,
We're crimson and white Davenport High,
We'll back you to stand 'gainst the best in the land
For we know you're the stand
Davenport High.

So smash that blockade Davenport High,
Go crashing ahead, Davenport High,
Our team is our fame protector
On boys for they have gained a victory
For you, Davenport High.

CHEE CHA CHA-AH-AH
DAVENPORT, DAVENPORT, DAVENPORT

Bring out the dear old flag of crimson and white,
Lead on the team that fought so nobly
for right,
Like men of old, on giants placing reliance,
Shouting defiance, Os-Kee-Wa-Wa!
Amid the great broad fields that nourish
our land
For honest battle and for Freedom we stand
And unto you, we pledge our hearts and hands,
Dear D.H.S. we're true to you.

DEDICATION

In sincere appreciation for the guidance, understanding, and practical instruction that they have given to the students of Davenport High School, we dedicate this Gorilla Review of 1962 to two vocational teachers who have served the youth of our community for many years.

MR. E. DAVID CARPENTER

Mr. E. David Carpenter, who has taught vocational agriculture at Davenport High School for seventeen years, has been responsible for the development of the strong agricultural program of our school.

As advisor of the Future Farmers of America, he has taught many high school boys to become practical workers in livestock and agricultural management, and shop skills.

MRS. MAE A. VAN SCOYOC

Mrs. Mae A. Van Scoyoc has, for the past eight years, taught the girls of the home economics class the domestic arts of sewing, cooking, and home management.

With her experienced guidance, the Future Homemakers of America chapter has become an active organization, preparing the girls to build tomorrow's homes successfully.

As she leaves the teaching profession this year, we wish her a rewarding retirement.

Dear Jerry,
I'm sorry I got

Dear Jerry,
It's been real nice
having your sweet face in the halls this year. How does it feel
to be a sophomore already.
Time sure does fly
doesn't it.
Be good this summer,

Dear Jerry,
I've enjoyed the quiet little boy that is just perfect in English. See you next year

REVIEW OF ADMINISTRATION

SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

There is apparent in our community and nation today an unabating concern over education. It would reflect the realization that our nation's security is dependent upon proper education as well as proper defenses. Beneath this current criticism of our school there is also evident a deep public faith in the possibilities of and in the record of the public school system.

The members of the Class of 1962 have completed their program as produced by our community in this great public school effort. The effectiveness of the past twelve years will now be challenged by the opportunities of continued development in the years ahead. We anticipate that the members of this Class will accept the challenge of the future and pursue it to improve themselves through a never-ending desire to achieve.

The faculty extends hearty congratulations to you, the Class of '62, and sincere appreciation for strengthening the traditions of our school through your individual efforts. May you have continued success and good health.

Lloyd Stannard

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Principal and Student Council

Principal's Message

It is a rich heritage which our predecessors have left us. This heritage is the high standard incorporated into the student morale of the Davenport High School. Nothing can prevent achievement when students want to achieve. Great obstacles can be overcome if students want to overcome them, but insignificant difficulties can block progress if students are looking for excuses for low achievement.

Building on the fine student spirit of the past, it is my hope to see co-operation between the students and the faculty grow ever closer and closer to the end that each student shall attain to his own best self. In such an undertaking, the teacher can guide, but the student must pull. When the teacher must drive, then the learner is not a student.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

On September 9, 1958, the Freshman Class meeting was called to order by our advisor and temporary chairman, Mr. Ivan Harshbarger. Officers were elected as follows: John Scott, president; Judy Gruneruud, vice-president; Carol Reinbold, secretary-treasurer; Susan Luiten, ASB Representative; Bobbi Jackson and Jim Haynie, social chairmen. With eager anticipation the frosh built two dummies representing Wilbur football squad members that were to be burned in effigy at the serpentine. Bruce Ottmar was our contribution as escort for the Homecoming Royalty. In becoming familiar with parliamentary procedure, we voted that we move into the court for classes and flood the school which would then be used as a swimming pool. This was a mock meeting, of course. We gave a dance after the basketball game with Reardan on February 6, 1959.

Our class might well be the last group of true DHS students to pass through these sacred halls, for we were the last class to be initiated here. Dressed in odd costumes, going backward through doors, and carrying seniors' books—we will remember the occasion. Our cave man, Lynda Heitman; cowgirl, Mike Hutsell; and Sergeant Garcia, alias Bobbi Jackson, were awarded prizes for their clever disguises.

On September 10, 1959, John Scott called the meeting to order, and Carol Reinbold took over after being elected the new president. Other officers elected were: vice-president, Jim Sorensen; sec.-treas., Darlene Oertel; student council representative, Judy Clark; social chairmen, Vera Wollin and Jim Loffler. Mr. Harshbarger again had the privilege of being our class advisor. For the dance that we sponsored after the football game with Odessa we decorated the auditorium gaily with red and white crepe paper streamers to form a false ceiling, and used small paper footballs to adorn the walls. Our artistic talents were utilized in designing crowns, in decorating goalposts and the platform for the Homecoming ceremonies. The Homecoming queen's crown was placed on the head of classmate Bobbi Jackson. On May 6, 1960, we gave "party night" with games, followed by a sock hop in the gym.

The Junior Class of 1960-61 elected Mike Hutsell, president; Jim Sorensen, vice-president; Lynda Heitman, secretary-treasurer; Jim Haynie ASB representative; Rita Reinbold, social chairman; Connie Rauch, selling chairman; and Susan Luiten, purchasing chairman. Mr. Q. J. Lefevre consented to be our advisor for the year. "Trouble in Paradise," a comedy written by Robert St. Clair was produced by the class with Mr. Duane Shelby as director and Connie Rauch assisting him. Unoccupied moments for members of the class were scarce. Before we had finished selling pop and candy at football and basketball games, we started plans for the Junior-Senior Prom. It was voted that the theme would be "Harbor Lights" which, of course, would be kept a deep, dark secret.

Due to differences of opinion, the theme was officially changed to "Old Cape Cod." Twelve sophomore boys served the banquet dinner of roast beef and all the "trimmins" which was planned and prepared by our mothers. The five "G-Men" from Gonzaga played beautiful music for the dancers in the grade school multi-purpose room which was decorated with murals depicting a fishing wharf and landscape, with driftwood, a lighthouse, and colored lights setting a wonderful atmosphere for our royalty of senior girls. In reminiscing over our days in DHS, none of us will ever forget our Prom.

The senior year of the Class of 1962 was truly a grand finale to the best years of our lives. Mr. Harshbarger rejoined us in an advisory position as Jim Haynie took over the office of president. Judy Clark served as vice-president, Judy Gruneruud as secretary-treasurer, Bobbi Jackson as ASB representative, and Vera Wollin and Jim Loffler as our social committee. This year's uppermost class sponsored a dance after the Grand Coulee football game to celebrate our victory. On Homecoming night, the dance after the game was also sponsored by the seniors. We were guilty of breaking a semi-tradition by changing the annual Senior Ball to an informal Senior Sock Hop at which the DHS Combo produced live music. The senior play "The Other You" was presented with Mrs. Duane Shelby as director and Connie Rauch as student director. Lockwood Studio of Spokane photographed members of the class for decorating the Annual and our homes. After many votes and changes of minds, Saturday, June 2, 1962, was chosen to be the big day for the Class of '62. With elation and sorrow, smiles and tears, the thirty-one of us bravely marched into the gymnasium in our scarlet gowns to the band's chords of "Pomp and Circumstance" to take part in our final ceremony in our beloved DHS.

Busy, busy, busy! Those are the words to describe this year's junior class. Juniors worked hard selling at both the football and basketball games. The highlight of the sales was the busy Bi-County Basketball Tournament.

The mystery-comedy, "The Man on the Stairs," the class play which was directed by Mr. Shelby, was a big success and had a full house both nights.

The big event of the year was the Junior-Senior Prom on which the class worked for several weeks. Prom night was May 5.

Jerry - Have lots of luck in the future and don't get in any bad trouble. Work real hard next year and have a darn good (extra) time.
Jay

The Freshmen have proved themselves an industrious class this year.

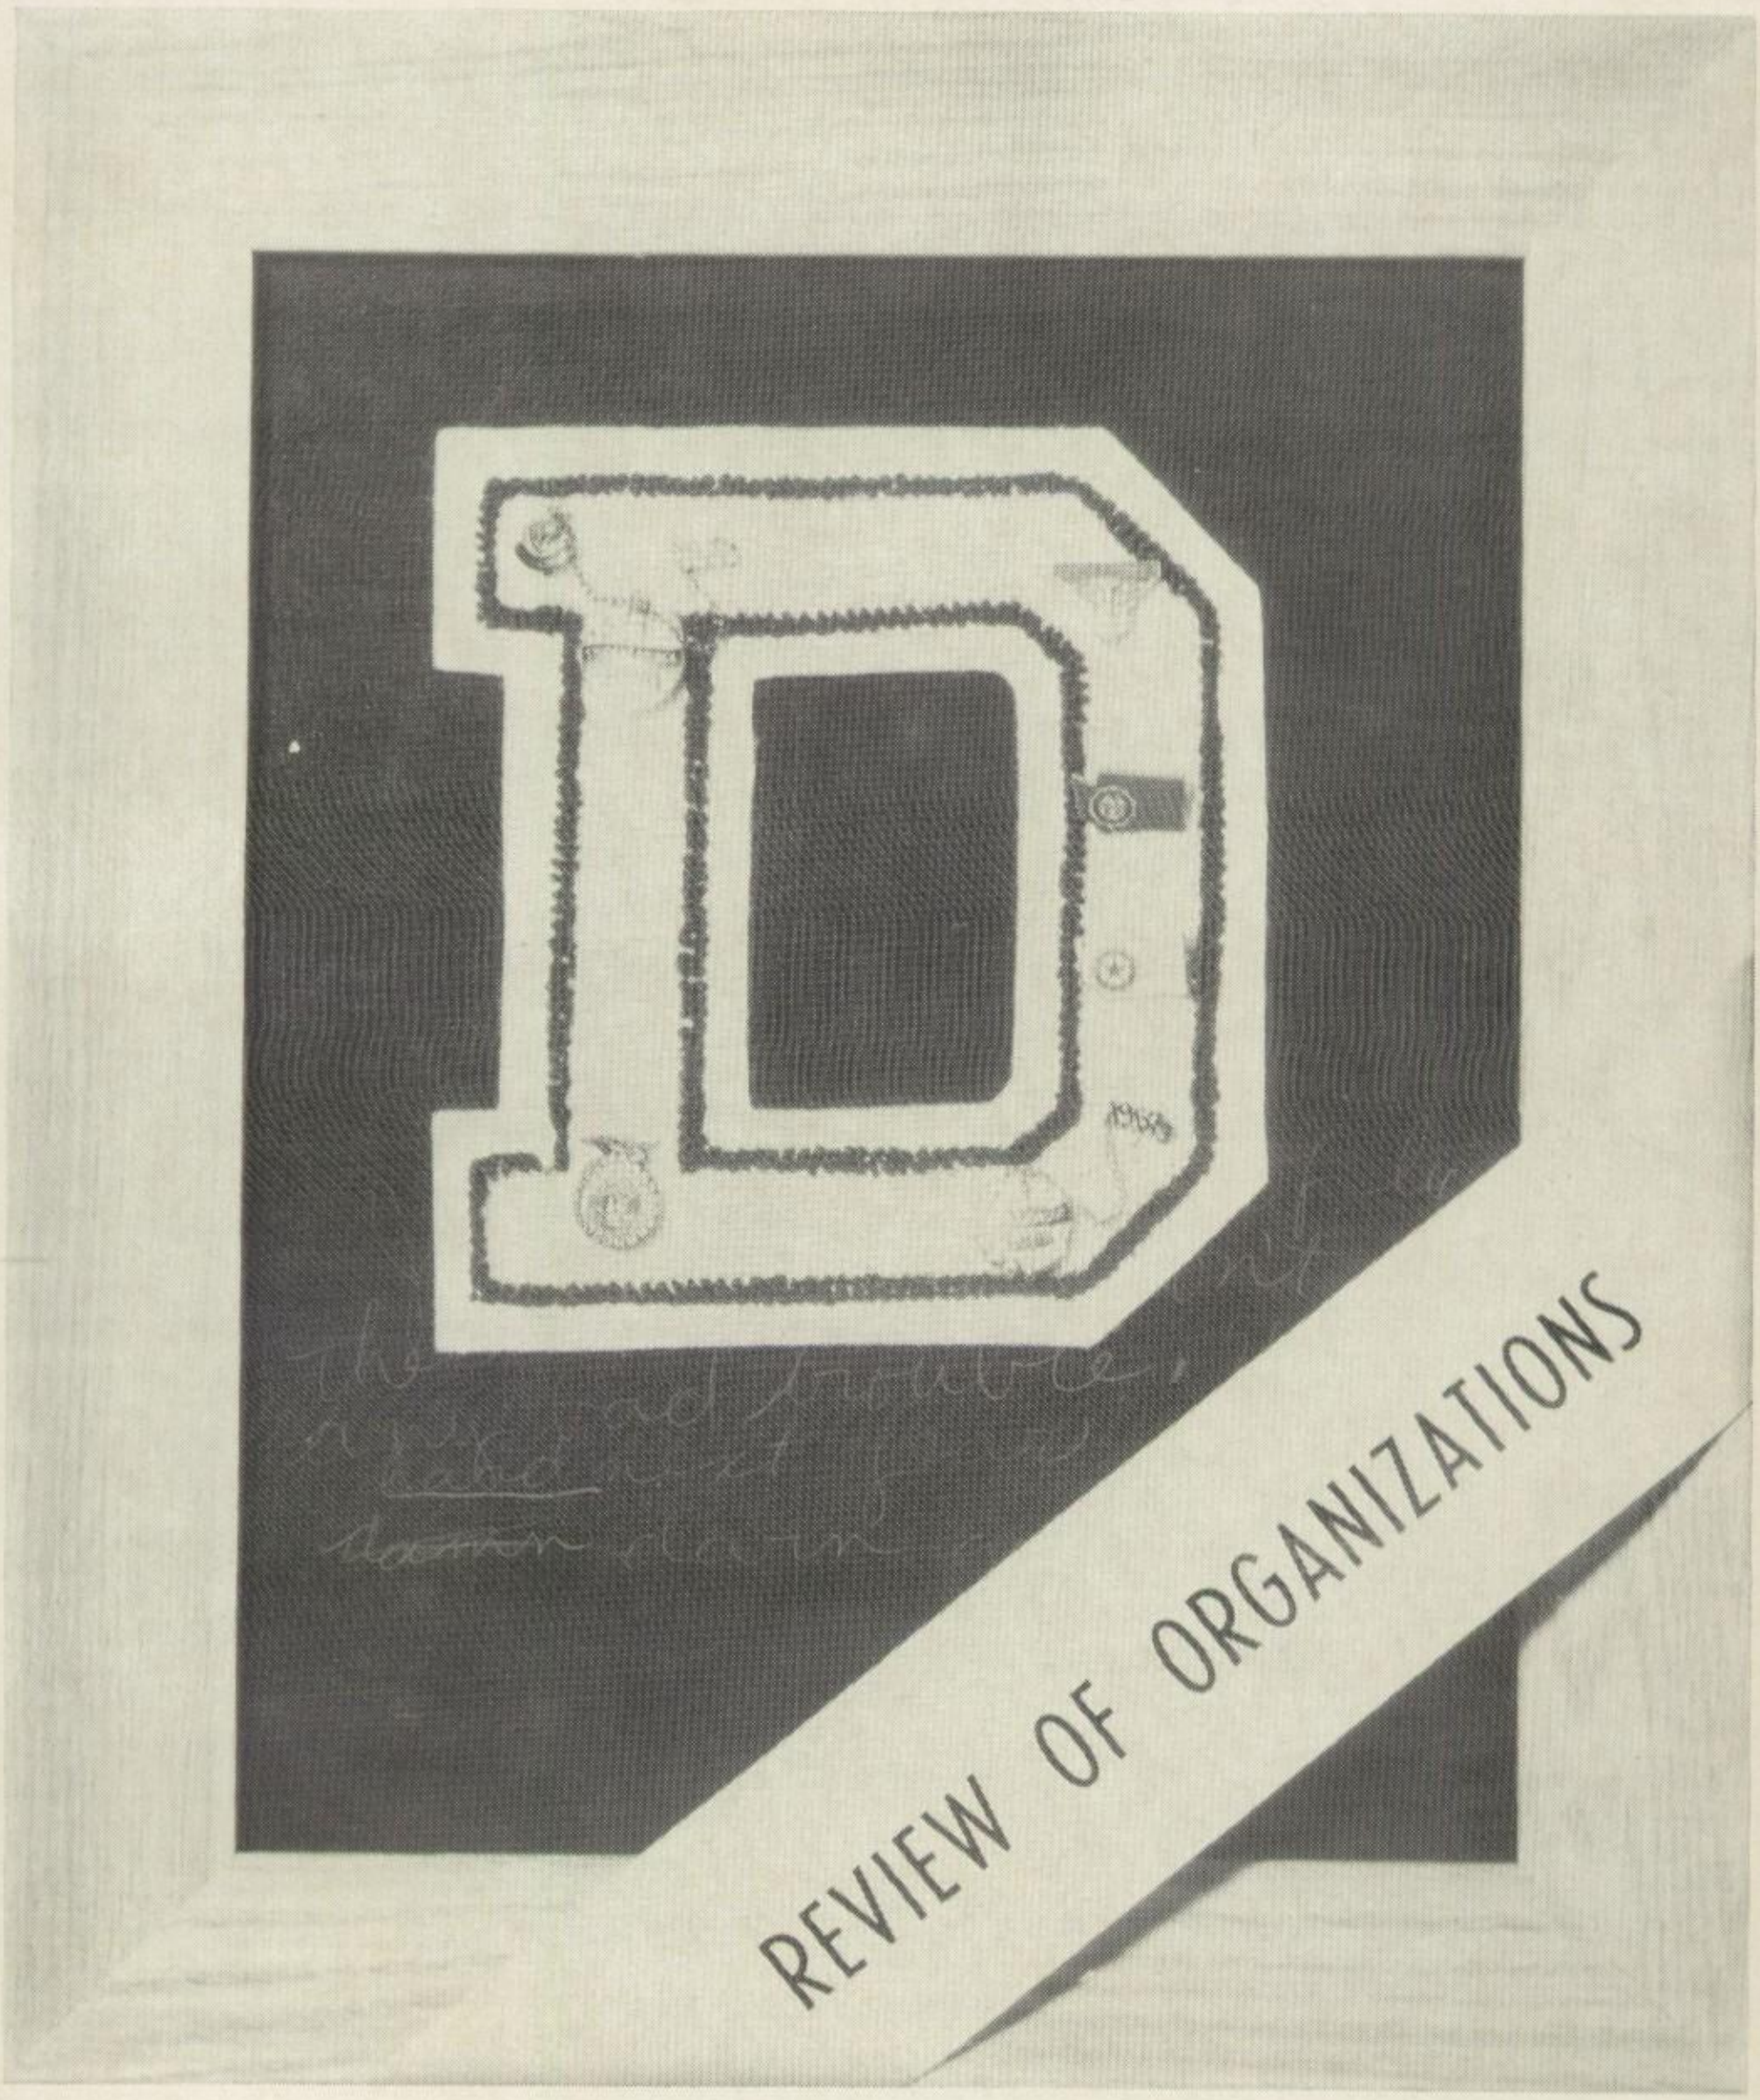
Many have participated in a broad variety of school activities. Examples are: the two Frosh who took strong supporting roles in the senior class play; the two Freshmen who were on the basketball team that went to the district and state tourneys; the Freshmen in the all-high play; the freshman-sponsored dance; and a profitable candy sale.

The future promises many more activities by this industrious group.

FUTURE FRESHMEN

Row 1: Mrs. Nancy Reinbold, Mrs. Betty Heid, Linda Burge, Brigette Young, Judy Lehinger, Sharyn Cook, Linda Salter, Alta Reinbold, Sharon Olson, Sharon McCaffery, Linda Childs. Row 2: Diane Stewart, Susie Hutsell, Jeanette Pfau, Rita Finch, Vicki Jonas, Julie Abbott, Sally Reinbold, Cathy Randall, Susan Reinbold, Betty Reinbold, Patty Reish. Row 3: Mr. Rollin Ricketts, Home-Room Teacher; Roger Beieler, Dick Hutchens, Nicky Hutsell, Greg Strate, Mike Linstrum, Bob Brooks, Danny Florin, Gary Adair. Row 4: Wes Reihle, Ken Conrad, Mark Gunning, Blaine Grunerud, Allen Schmauder, Dale Terry, Sam Schneider.

Due to the new addition to our high school building, this year the junior-high students attended classes in the same building as did the high school students. The future freshmen had no class officers but had represnetatives to the Junior High Student Council as follows: president, Blaine Grunerud; secretary, Bob Brooks; eighth grade representatives, Linda Salter and Mike Linstrum. Eighth grade representatives as cheer leaders were Patti Reish and Linda Childs, and as song leaders were Susan Hutsell and Alta Reinbold.



REVIEW OF ORGANIZATIONS

GORILLA GROWL-Newspaper Staff

Standing: Paulette Boyk, Sharleen Erks, Mrs. Shelby, Don Carlton. Not pictured, Rita Bonser, Karen Conrad.

DIANE ABBOTT, Editor

The journalism class, which publishes the school paper every two weeks, is not an extra-curricular activity, but requires a great deal of hard work and some hours of after-school effort. This year the staff changed the name of the publication from Gorilla Hi-Lites to Gorilla Growl.

Evergreen Staters

John Scott, Mike Hutsell, and Jim Haynie attended Evergreen Boys' State at Pacific Lutheran University.

Carol Reinbold attended Evergreen Girls' State at Ellensburg.

Sponsored by the American Legion, the Lions' Club, and the American Legion Auxiliary, Girls' and Boys' State provides the opportunity for worthy students of the junior class to study government at city, county, and state levels.

National Honor Society

Judy Carlton, Lynda Heitman, Darlene Oertel, Diane Luck, and Susan Luiten were chosen as members of the National Honor Society. This is a distinction gained in the Junior or Senior year by students whose outstanding qualities are scholarship, leadership, character, service, citizenship, and a 3.0 grade average.

MAJORETTES AND VOCALISTS

Majorettes were Ronne Ricketts, Marilee Mooers, Rollie Buchser, and Nancy Whitney. The girls twirled with the band at band day at WSU, at basketball games, and at the Lilac Parade in Spokane.

The Octette, a continuation of the Triple Trio of last year, sang again this year for the fall concert and for events to which they were invited. Members are: Carol Odell, Carol Reinbold, Sharon Canfield, Lynda Heitman, Marilyn Heitman, Nancy Reinbold, Joy Underwood, and Diane Abbott. The girls were accompanied by Susan Luiten.

The Girls' Quartette, formed in the second semester, sang at the various music contests and were asked to sing at several dinners and events sponsored by local organizations. Susan Luiten accompanied the members—Lynda Heitman, Linda Strate, Marilyn Heitman, and Carol Reinbold.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

"Toward New Horizons"

With this motto in mind, the Future Homemakers' Chapter at Davenport High School is striving for the goal of making "homes for America's future."

Some of the activities in which the group participated were the join initiation with Wilbur at Davenport, serving at the FFA banquet, sponsoring a Hallowe'en dance, and holding a candy sale.

The chief goal of these girls is to become good homemakers, thus receiving the honor of wearing the FHA pin.

A full program vigorously pursued by F.F.A. has resulted in many awards. The livestock judging team won the Lincoln County Fair contest. Our team won second in livestock judging at St. John this spring; Mike Hardin was fourth high individual. Ken Jacobsen was high individual at the Davenport preview on April 28. Our land-judging team participated at Liberty and the parliamentary procedure team competed at Cheney this spring.

Ron Kirkwood received the State Farmer degree this spring at the State convention. He also played first chair clarinet in the State F.F.A. Band.

Rodney Reinbold was one of two in the Northeast district to be awarded a F.F.A. jacket by the Western Farmers' Cooperative Association. Gerald Stiles and Ron Kirkwood received trophies from the Ralston Purina Corporation and Rodney Willey received a special ship trophy from the Gibson Welding Supply. Mike Hutsell received the Washington Bankers' Association citation for leadership.

The Parent-F.F.A. banquet was well attended, at which time awards earned by chapter members were given out.

Our booth at the Lincoln County Fair won first again, with the members winning most of the F.F.A. division honors. Gerald Stiles showed the champion sheep and was the champion showman. Ron Kirkwood showed the champion barrow and pen of three and was the champion showman. Ken Jacobsen showed the reserve champion steer and was the champion showman, he was the champion showman also at the Davenport Preview this spring. Daryl Williams showed the champion and reserve-champion steers this spring and Roger Reinbold showed the champion hog.

Eleven new pledges joined the Science Club.

The annual Science Club trip to Seattle took the seventeen members and eighteen invited students (with a 3.0 grade average) to our State Capitol, Boeing Aircraft Center at Renton, and the Pure Food and Drug Administration laboratory.

The five day trip also included a day at Copalis Beach and other points of interest.

Mr. and Mrs. Ron Barbee and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Clark were chaperones for the week.

This green house, which was added to the roof of the school building, is used by members of the Science Club for housing their projects.

GIRL OF THE YEAR

Diane Luck, an outstanding member of Girls' League, was chosen by the Girls' League member as Girl of the Year. She was presented with a corsage and the Girl of the Month bracelet at the last League meeting of the year.

The Girls' League, under the energetic leadership of President Diane Luck, enjoyed many activities on a busy schedule. A successful big and little sister party was just one of these activities.

During the Christmas season the girls sent money to the Spokesman-Review Christmas Fund and decorated a beautiful tree that added greatly to the Christmas spirit at our school.

Each month a new trait was announced and a girl was chosen who most nearly exemplified the trait.

The Sweetheart Ball on February 17 was well attended.

Pictures and articles about the Ball and the candidates may be found in the Snaps and Ads Review.

"THE MAN ON THE STAIRS"

Junior Class Play

Standing: Donna Kirkwood, Nancy Reinbold, Rod Willey, Joy Underwood, Ron Buchser. Seated: Marilyn Heitman, Larry Ford, Pearl Wollin, Bob Christensen.

The Junior Class presented a three-act mystery-comedy, "The Man on the Stairs," written by E. Clayton McCarty. The students really enjoyed the production which took place in an old California house up in the foothills above San Juan.

The crowd that came to see the students act out the story enjoyed the suspense and characterizations.

"THE OTHER YOU"

Senior Class Play

Standing: Connie Rauch, Donna Van Buren, John Scott, Rita Reinbold, Vera Wollin, Jay Leipham, Elizabeth Remillong, Mrs. Shelby. Seated: Susan Luiten, Jim Haynie, Judy Clark, Diane Luck, Rod Reinbold, Kay Salter.

These people were members of the cast of "The Other You," a three-act comedy presented by the senior class on March 29 and 30.

Back-stage in the make-up area are pictured Aunt Olga (Donna), Rita Clark (Judy), the director (Mrs. Shelby), and Inner Willy (Rod). At the entrance to the new addition to the school are pictured Rick Walden and Floyd Warwick, two who helped with play properties.

"ONE WILD NIGHT"

"ONE WILD NIGHT" was the three-act play presented by the students of DHS as the All-High Play this spring. A farce, the story tells of Rodney Dodd, a healthy young man and his adventures upon the arrival of his aunt Myra Opal Dodd. The plot thickens and hilarity rises, as the young hero wills his house to the girls' school next door for a dormitory. The lively production with its dozens of laughs was a hit with all who came to view it as the students portrayed the characters with enthusiasm.

Because of an extraordinarily large number of girls turning out for the play, the female parts were double cast. We know that Mr. Shelby surely had his hands full, but he did another of his truly fine jobs.

THESPIAN ACTIVITIES

For the second consecutive year the Thespians chose, cast, directed, and produced a one-act play for the student body.

"Ghost in the House" was the title of the Halloween play given in the fall. The plot centered around a ghost (played by John Scott) who was won in an essay contest. Others in the cast, directed by Rita Reinbold and Connie Rauch, included Darlene Oertel, Judy Clark, Carol Reinbold, Jim Haynie, Darel Abbott, and Dan Milligan.

A Christmas pageant entitled "Christmas Eve and All Is Well" was also prepared. The large cast included several non-Thespian members. Due to school closure because of heavy snows the play was not presented.

A cake raffle held at a Davenport-Reardan basketball game served as the main money-making project.

Two initiations were held: an informal in the fall and a formal in the spring.

New members pictured at the fall initiation ceremonies are: Penny Paulsen, Dan Milligan, Marilyn Heitman, Darlene Oertel, and Pearl Wollin.

Penny Paulsen and Judy Grunerud are no doubt enjoying sorting out the items in their lockers—there are probably mementos from the several plays for which they served as properties managers.

OUTSTANDING THESPIAN BOY
John Scott

To be chosen Thespians of the year is a signal honor that can be earned only by perseverance and constant service toward the Dramatic Arts.

After careful consideration, these students were chosen because they fulfilled the qualifications considered most essential.

OUTSTANDING THESPIAN GIRL
Rita Reinbold

Hi there Jer:
I'm glad you asked me to sign this. Or I would have asked you. Long ago I'm known for my long letters but I'll try to cut it short.
Have fun during your next three years. I have only one more year to take after this. Keep up your good work. You must be getting off with all those letters from me. Let's hear from you Dad next year. You just love letters.
Like next Sunday? I just love "G"
too. Love you, Nancy W.
Have fun.

HOMECOMING ROYALTY

As a climax to the serpentine activities, Queen Nancy Reinbold and Princesses Joy Underwood and Sherry Jurgensen were announced by football captain John Scott. The girls were crowned on Homecoming night by Mike Hutsell, student body president.

SWEETHEART BALL

Chosen to reign over the Sweetheart Ball was Sweetheart Mary Thiringer with her escort Handsome Harry Dean Morgan. The Ball sponsored by the Girls' League was held February 17. Other candidates and their escorts were: Penny Paulsen and Ron Coleman; Cathy McGath and Rod Hansen; and Joy Luck and Darel Abbott.

During the school year these boys, Larry Ford, Don Conrad, Jim Straub, and Darrel Teel have been helpful in many ways around school. One of their accomplishments was the wiring of the public address system at the high school and the loud speaker at the football field.

ROYALTY—Princess Diana Hill, Queen Connie Rauch, Princess Rita Reinbold. The Royal Court is chosen through secret ballot in the Junior Class.

MOON RIVER was the theme which prompted the Juniors' decorations for this year's annual Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom. A southern atmosphere was created with a bridge, garden, swing, and foliage typical of the South.

Mr. Norm Thue played the piano during the banquet; the G-Men from Gonzaga furnished music for the dance held aferward in the multi-purpose room of the grade school.

Six Southern Belles—Susan Luiten, Judy Grunerud, Penny Paulsen, Lynda Heitman, Kay Salter, and Vera Wollin—gathered on the bridge that overlooked a pond in which waterlillies floated and goldfish darted.

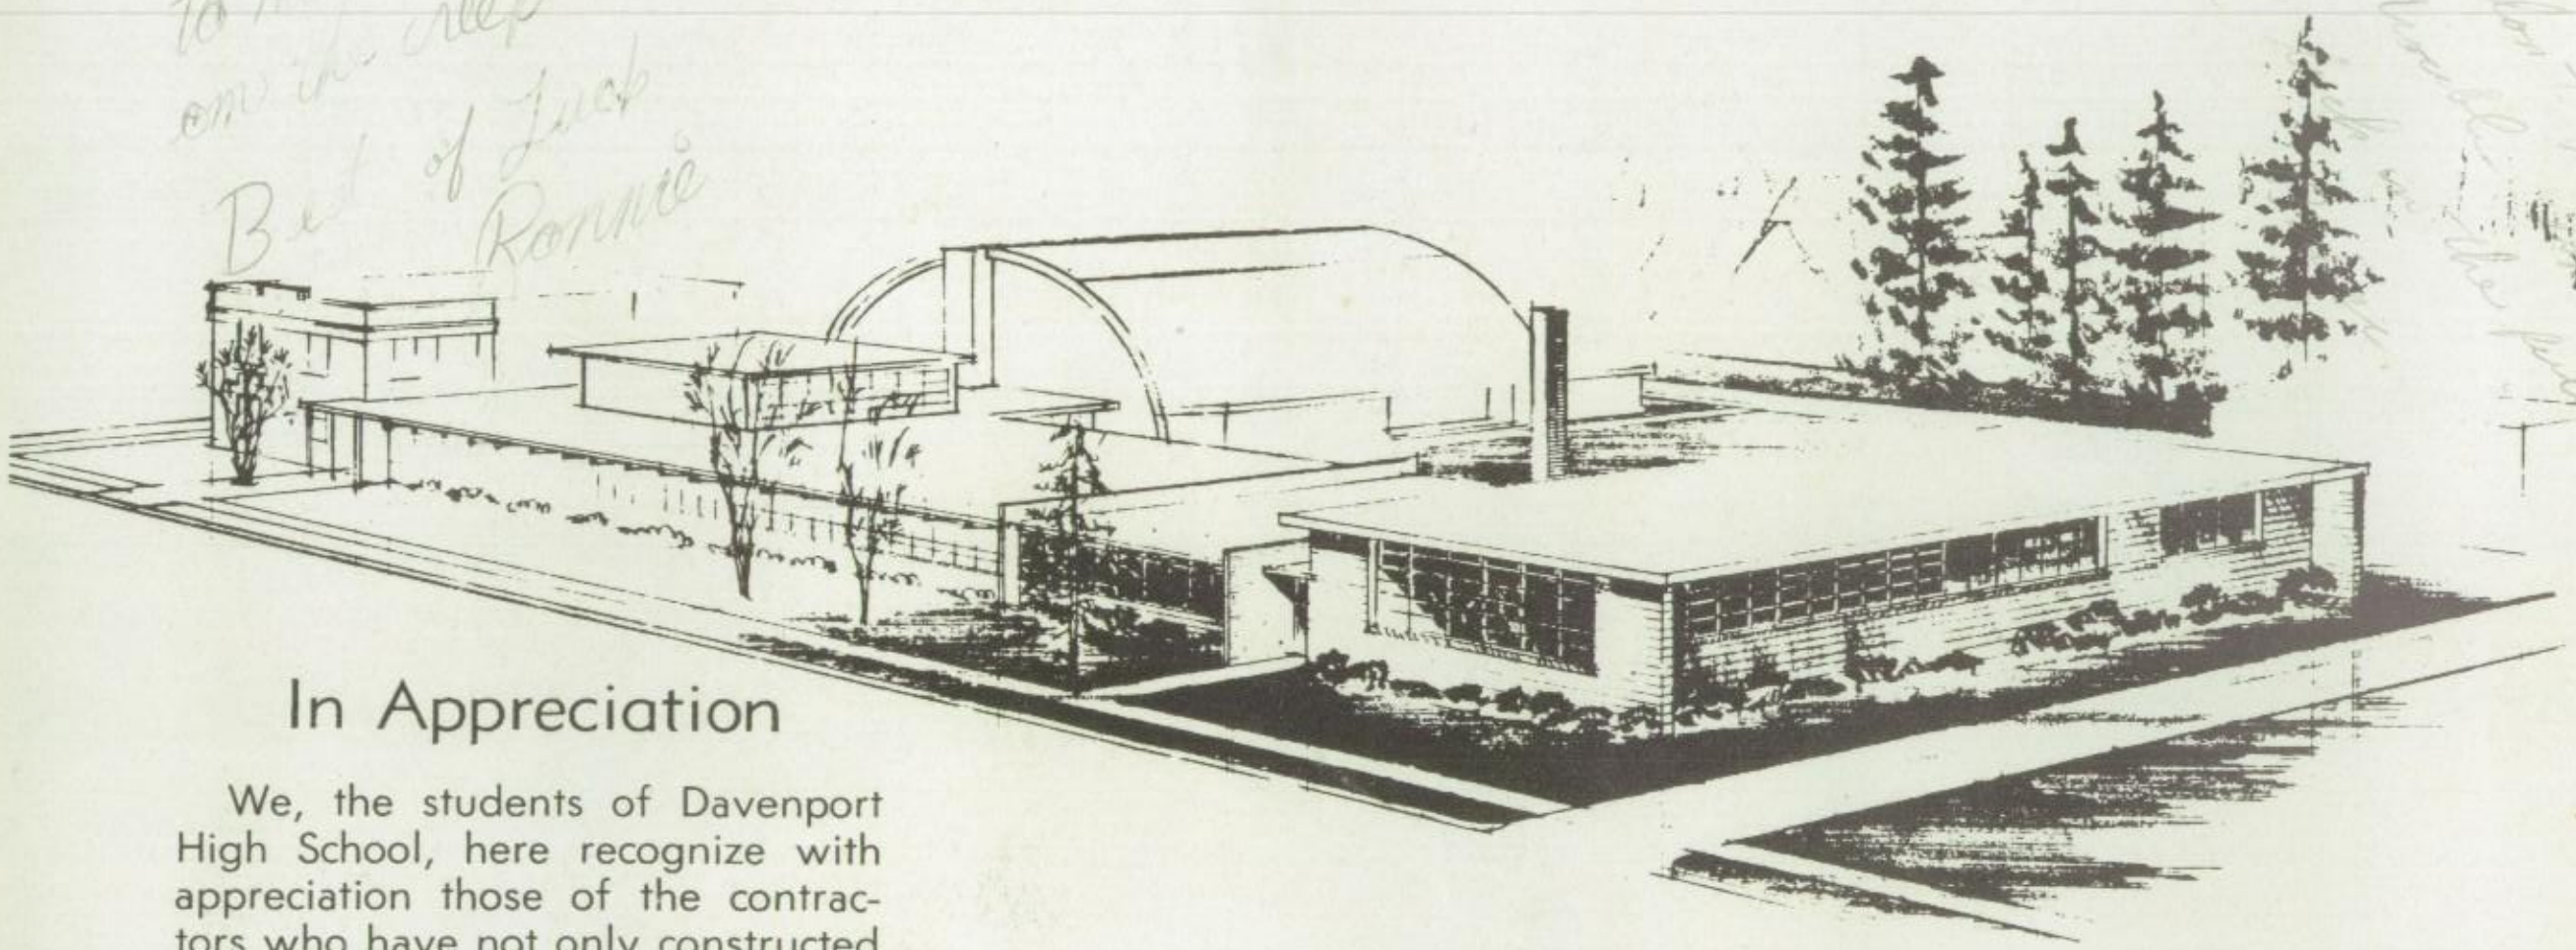
DAVENPORT HIGH SCHOOL WITH ADDITION-1962



In Appreciation

We, the students of Davenport High School, here recognize with appreciation those of the contractors who have not only constructed the addition to our school, but who have contributed as well to our ad section.

This building, a center of educational, social, and physical culture, is one which truly represents the right of every individual to become educated to the extent of his own choosing in the free public schools of the United States.

We wish to thank also all the business men and women who have contributed so much support to our yearbook through advertisements and courtesy pages.

All-High Chorus

The All-High Chorus with an enrollment of over one hundred was led again this year by Mr. Grier. This is an elective class which operates on a floating period basis with one period a week. The large group has done very outstanding work in their selections at concerts and also outside activities such as the Chamber of Commerce Banquet, the reception for Governor Rosellini, and the graduation ceremonies.

Excitement Abounds!

Excitement surely did abound! Gorilla fans really turned out to cheer their team on this year, and on they went. Undefeated in league play, the Gorillas went into district tournament as second in bi-county and earned third place in the district meet. Loyal fans continued to follow the team to state contest where the squad played three exciting games even though they failed to place.
